Please read the following Student Responsibilities and Conditions of the Instrumental & Vocal Music Program.

Student Responsibility:

- That student/s entering into the program give one term commitment to lessons, band/ ensemble rehearsals and performances.
- That student/s need to attend all lessons, band/ ensemble rehearsals and performances with instruments and music.
- It is a student's responsibility to be ready for lessons and be in attendance at lessons. (It is not the responsibility of teachers to remind student of lessons, unless there has been a change of time or place for lessons).
- Student/s will need to notify their teacher of any of lessons that may be missed, if known in advance.
- That student/s will practice so as to ensure the progression of lessons and learning, and are responsible for bringing resources as stated by the teacher to lessons.

Conditions:

- The cost of lessons will be added to the term's school fees.
- That no refund will be given for lessons missed by students.
- Lessons missed by the teacher will be either rescheduled or the cost of missed lessons deducted following term's payment.
- No refund will be given for students who terminate lessons through the term.
- It is the parent's responsibility to notify the school at the end of the term or within one week of commencement of a term of student/s terminating lessons. Forms for the termination of lessons are available at Student Reception.
- All students wishing to participate in any of the College instrumental ensembles MUST be involved in the Instrumental Music Program. Exceptions will only be granted in extreme circumstances with the approval of the College Principal.

I/We have read the above conditions and responsibilities and have understood and accept them as terms of entrance for my/our child into the Xavier Catholic College Instrumental & Vocal Music Program.
